GATHERING MUSIC We Three Kings of Orient Are VIDEO with Lyrics

1 We three kings of Orient are; bearing gifts we traverse afar, field and fountain, moor and mountain, following yonder star.

Refrain

Oh, star of wonder, star of night, star with royal beauty bright; westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light!

2 Born a king on Bethlehem's plain, gold I bring to crown him again;
king forever, ceasing never, over us all to reign. *Refrain

3 Frankincense to offer have I; incense owns a deity nigh; prayer and praising, gladly raising, worshiping God Most High. *Refrain

4 Myrrh is mine; its bitter perfume breathes a life of gathering gloom; sorrowing, sighing, bleeding, dying, sealed in the stone-cold tomb. *Refrain

5 Glorious now behold him arise, King and God and Sacrifice; heav'n sings alleluia: alleluia the earth replies. *Refrain

WELCOME

Welcome in the name of the living God who is revealed in heavenly splendor and earthly obscurity, star and baby, shepherds and kings.

Thank you for joining us today!

For those of you who don't know me,
I'm Pastor Marjo Anderson of Salem Lutheran Church in Bridgeport, CT.
While our offices are closed at present, you can always reach us at our website: SalemBridgeport.org, on Facebook at SalemBridgeport, and on our YouTube channel, Salem Lutheran Church, Bridgeport Ct.

During the Christmas season we remembered the lowly shepherds in the fields of Bethlehem who came to worship the baby Jesus.

Today as we celebrate the Festival of the Epiphany or Three Kings Day we remember the magi, the wise men, the astronomers who journeyed from Persia to kneel at the feet of the Christ Child.

As the more infectious strain of the coronavirus has made its way to CT, the state department of health encourages us to double down on our efforts to contain the spread of the virus.
Those of us who can worship on line will continue to do so, except for special events like our upcoming congregational meeting. .

If there are Salem members you know who are not able to join us online from their homes, please contact either me or our parish nurse so we might facilitate their participation, either by loaning them a digital tablet and teaching them to use it, or by providing a place for them to watch our service outside their home.

No matter how we worship, we'll stream to FacebookLive and post to our YouTube channel.

As of this past week, one of our videos has had 1.6K views, and others have numbered in the hundreds.
which means we are reaching more people with the gospel now than we have for decades.

If you are on Facebook, please, PLEASE, share our worship on your page and we will reach even more with the good news of God's love and power!

Links to our donate page and worship bulletin which has both the order of worship and announcements, as well as other resources are included on our website at SalemBridgeport.org/Live and on our Facebook page.

Please remember that you may reach me by text, telephone, or email – anytime.
If I am not able to pick up right away, leave a message and I'll get back to you as soon as possible.
Messages can also be left for Karl on the church answering machine which he can access remotely.

As we begin our worship, let us pray:

Almighty and ever-living God, you revealed the incarnation of your Son by the brilliant shining of a star.
Fill our hearts with your glory so that we may be moved to follow the One who is our morning star .
Accept as the treasure we offer our thanks and praise for all you have done, for all you are doing, and for all you have promised to do in our lives.

Shine the light of your justice always over our country and all nations of the world!

Make our lives so shine that we may bring others to know your love and power.

We pray in the name of the One who is the Light of the World, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen

Word

OLD TESTAMENT READING from Isaiah 60.1-6 (selected verses)

- ¹ Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.
² For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples;
but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you.
³ Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn....
⁵ Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice... because the ... wealth of the nations shall come to you.
⁶ ... the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come.
They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD!

PSALM 72:1-7, 10-14 (selected verses)

- ¹ Give the king your justice, O God, and your righteousness to the king's son;
² that he may rule your people righteously and the poor with justice...
⁴ Let him defend the needy among the people, rescue the poor, and crush the oppressor... and let there be an abundance of peace till the moon shall be no more....
¹⁰ May the kings of Tarshish & of the isles pay tribute & the kings of Sheba & Seba offer gifts.
¹¹ May all kings bow down before him, and all the nations do him service.
¹² For the king delivers the poor who cry out in distress, the oppressed, and those who have no helper.
¹³ He has compassion on the lowly and poor, and preserves the lives of the needy.
¹⁴ From oppression and violence he redeems their lives, and precious is their blood in his sight.

GOSPEL READING from Matthew 2:1-12

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, "Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet:

'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.'

Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage." When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

SERMON

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Guided by Christ made known to the nations, let us offer our prayers for the church, the world, and all people in need.

Individual worshipers are invited to offer the petitions as so moved by the Spirit.

We pray for the church throughout the world and its leaders, that guided by the Holy Spirit they proclaim the forgiveness of sins.
We pray for our mission partners, especially today for our Southern CT conference, the New England Synod and Region 7;
and for Salem members & their families, especially for those celebrating their birthday this week:
Allison Bryk and Barbro Lund.
God, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We pray for wilderness and water, wind and wild beasts, and all living things on earth, that God's goodness is revealed through creation and faithful stewards care for all God has made.
God, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We pray for the nations of the world and their leaders, for laborers busy both day and night, and for peacemakers amid strife, that God inspire all people to use their strength wisely.
God, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We pray for the sick and those who provide medical care, for the imprisoned and those who show them mercy, for the lonely and those who provide companionship, and for all who suffer, especially Andrea, Audry, Barbara, Bud, Jerry, David, Diane, Dolores, Eron, Grace, Hazel, Jacob, Jana, Katherine, Liz, Maria, Martha, Ron, Sarah, Steve, and all we name in our hearts, that God shower compassion.
God, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We pray for the congregation gathered here, for students returning to school, for those seeking renewal in their daily work, that all the beloved of God experience grace and peace.
God, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

In thanksgiving we pray for the faithful departed who now rest from their labors, that their witness inspire us in our baptismal vocations.
God, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

You are invited to offer your own prayer petition at this time, either silently or aloud.

The pastor concludes:

Merciful God, hear the prayers of your people, spoken or silent, for the sake of the one who dwells among us, your Son, Jesus Christ our Savior.

Amen

Thanksgiving

OFFERING PRAYER

Jesus, you said, "Give & it will be given to you... for the measure you give will be the measure you get back."

Give us the confidence to cheerfully give our tithes & offerings of time, talent & treasure to your work in this place, trusting that you will provide abundantly for all our needs.
We pray this in the power of your Spirit. Amen

OFFERING

In response to God's grace, it is our joy to return to God our tithes and offerings.
Although our building at 3160 Park Avenue in Bridgeport, CT is closed at present, our ministry continues because of your generosity.

If you are watching and are part of another faith community, we encourage you to give your tithes to your own church first, and, if in addition to that, you would like to support our work here at Salem, we would be most grateful.

Simply go to the menu on our website at SalemBridgeport.org and click "donate"

Brightest and Best of the Stars

VIDEO with Lyrics

- 1 Brightest and best of the stars of the morning, dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid.
Star of the east, the horizon adorning, guide where our infant redeemer is laid.
- 2 Cold on his cradle the dewdrops are shining; low lies his head with the beasts of the stall;
angels adore him in slumber reclining, maker and monarch and savior of all.
- 3 Shall we then yield him, in costly devotion, odors of Edom, and off'rings divine, gems of the mountain and pearls of the ocean, myrrh from the forest and gold from the mine?
- 4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation, vainly with gifts would his favor secure; richer by far is the heart's adoration, dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.
- 5 Brightest and best of the stars of the morning, dawn on our darkness and lend us your aid.
Star of the east, the horizon adorning, guide where our infant redeemer is laid.

LORD'S PRAYER

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen

Bright and Glorious Is the Sky

VIDEO with Score

- 1 Bright and glorious is the sky, radiant are the heavens high where the golden stars are shining. All their rays to earth inclining beckon us to heav'n above, beckon us to heav'n above.
- 2 On that holy Christmas night through the darkness beamed a light;
all the stars above were paling, all their luster slowly failing, as the wondrous star drew nigh, as the wondrous star drew nigh.
- 3 Sages from the East afar, when they saw this wondrous star, went to find the king of nations and to offer their oblations to the child, the newborn king, to the child, the newborn king.
- 4 Him they found in Bethlehem, yet he wore no diadem;
there they saw a maiden lowly with an infant pure and holy resting in her loving arms, resting in her loving arms.
- 5 Guided by the star, they found him whose praise the ages sound.
We too have a star to guide us, which forever will provide us with the light to find our Lord, with the light to find our Lord.
- 6 And this star, as bright as day, that will never lead astray with its message so appealing, is the word of God, revealing Christ, the way, the truth, the life, Christ, the way, the truth, the life.

Every single one of us would no doubt like to go back to the way we used to worship pre-pandemic, but sadly that is not a possibility for now. God is GOOD, however, and has provided so many other ways for us to worship. Even if we get to Phase 3, there are those in our church family who due to health concerns are not able to gather with us indoors and have requested that we have zoom services sometimes. When the weather is too cold or when the roads are too snowy, or if we are in Phase 1 or 2, or if someone worshipping tests positive for Covid and we need to self-quarantine, we'll be worshipping via zoom. When the pastor is on vacation or on other special days, there will be pre-recorded services on Facebook and YouTube. While each one of us has our preferences, remember that we are a community in Christ who loves and looks out for one another. When we're worshipping your favorite way give thanks! And when we're worshipping in someone else's favorite way, give thanks for that, too!

Technology have you stumped? If you'd like some (VERY BASIC!) technology help – like accessing zoom on your iPhone, tablet, or pc, or downloading and using the Venmo or Cash app, or anything else, please speak with Pastor Marjo or call or email Karl.

Online Worship – Online worship is here to stay. Far more people participate in our worship online than come to worship on our property or even join us on zoom. In fact, up to 8 times as many as those gathered physically watch the entire service online, and many weeks we have over a thousand people who at least watch some of it! So no matter what format we use for worship in the future, we plan to stream via Facebook Live. Where the service is pre-recorded in the sanctuary it will also be streamed on YouTube. If you can't watch at 9:30 Sundays, video worship services will be saved to Facebook and also posted on YouTube so you can watch them later. Closed Captioning will be provided when available. For help turning on Captioning contact Karl or Pastor Marjo.

Did you enjoy The Best of Lucia? We're happy to provide other special online worship experiences if you have old VHS tapes or DVDs or other video recordings of the Salem Choir to share. Or maybe you have an old reel-to-reel or 8-track or cassette audio recording. Did you ever film the choir with your phone? Or what about recordings of our children's musical productions? We'd love to build up a digital library of Salem's musical treasures. Since singing increases significantly the amount and projection of the aerosols we produce when we breathe or speak, in-person singing is a high-risk activity which we cannot in good conscience allow for the duration of the pandemic, but we would dearly love to enjoy music in other ways. If you have any such recordings, please contact our Office Manager Karl by emailing him (salemsec123@sbcglobal.net) or calling the church and leaving a message (203-336-3300). We will figure out how to convert and copy your recordings so that we can all enjoy them. We're especially looking for recordings we could use for use in Lent, Holy Week, Easter, or other special days.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Pastor Marjo and Salem's Office Manager, Karl, work primarily from their homes but generally come in once a week to take care of tasks that cannot be accomplished remotely. Even though we must operate differently in these times, if we can help in any way, please know that you can still call Salem's church office at 203-330-3300 and leave a message and your message will be picked up remotely and your call returned. Please also do not hesitate to call or text Pastor Marjo at 203-982-3441.

Need help finding a Salem zoom meeting or need to set one up? Just go to our website at SalemBridgeport.org, click on the Resources tab, then on Calendar. On the calendar just find the day and click on the event and a zoom invitation will appear. Sometimes you may have to click on "(+2 more)" in order to see additional vents that don't fit in the calendar square. If your Salem committee or group would like to meet via Zoom, please contact Karl by emailing him at salemsec123@sbcglobal.net or by leaving a message on the church phone, 203-336-3300.

Ebony and Ivory? Wonder why some of your friends are saying “Black Lives Matter” when obviously all lives matter? Wonder why when we have anti-racism laws, people keep talking about “systemic” or “structural racism”? Wonder why the church is so focused on this issue? If you’re looking for answers to these and other questions, here are some great ways to learn:

1. The Council of Churches of Greater Bridgeport invites its members to take the following steps to work for a more just and equitable society:

*Starting on September 17, and going at least through May 20, 2021 we will hold monthly zoom meetings, the third Thursday of every month from 7:30 to 8:15 PM. You can register on our website –

<https://default.salsalabs.org/T4ca0bc4e-b5a6-457f-9432-5f3e459aaaa6/464704ca-cfbd-4af1-9836-dc2cefbf86ab> - & join these conversations to learn more, talk in small groups, & continue to engage in anti-racist work.

*You can take the 21 day Racial Equity Challenge - <https://default.salsalabs.org/T6ccaac28-05da-4baf-88a8-d1c2b9b86893/464704ca-cfbd-4af1-9836-dc2cefbf86ab> - all by yourself, to continue to learn, reflect, and act. This is a great resource created by the Myers Park Presbyterian Church, in Charlotte, VA.

*Also, here is a link - <https://default.salsalabs.org/Tc340bebd-4d68-4800-b754-7c48a473cd23/464704ca-cfbd-4af1-9836-dc2cefbf86ab> - to a document which lists these resources and our recommendations for a number of local and national organizations doing excellent anti-racism and justice work.

2. Read the 2019 Declaration of the ELCA to People of African Descent

& its accompanying Explanation at http://download.elca.org/ELCA%20Resource%20Repository/Slavery_Apology_Explanation.pdf?ga=2.119362624.853575714.1565027421-1958052405.1536241629 or go to ELCA.org, scroll down to “Resources”, scroll down to “Racial Justice”, and click on the Declaration to read and/or download.

3. Listen to this video lecture by Tom Skinner:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bvKQx4ycTmA> . It gives a much more detailed history of slavery in this country than we received in our history classes at school, & explains how it was the issue of slavery that created the divide between mainline & evangelical Christians.

4. Read the book, Dear Church: a Love Letter from a Black Preacher to the Whitest Denomination in the US by Lenny Duncan. There have been many explanations for the church’s decline, but Duncan sees a direct correlation between the church’s lack of diversity and its lack of vitality. Part manifesto, part confession, and all love letter, Dear Church offers a bold new vision for the future of the ELCA and the rest of mainline Protestant Christianity and calls everyone – leaders and laity alike – to the front lines of the church’s renewal through racial equality and justice. Salem has a few copies of the book, so if you would like to borrow one, please speak with Pastor Marjo.
