Gathering

Welcome!

You may have been vaccinated, but please bear in mind that not everyone is able to receive the vaccine due to their age or health condition. Although YOU may not get seriously ill, you could transmit covid to your grandchildren or to someone else who could end up seriously ill. Some of our members do not come because we do not have a mandatory mask policy. We know that EVERYONE is tired of wearing masks, but it's the best thing we can do as the efficacy of the vaccines wane over time and as new variants learn to elude the vaccine's defenses. As Christians Jesus calls us to love our neighbor, so, please, let's all do our part to end this pandemic. It's not about how safe WE feel, but about how safe we make OTHERS around us feel. Thank you for doing your part to help keep all at Salem as safe as possible!

During communion, you may take your communion elements during worship or hold on to your kit until you get home. If you take the elements inside the church, open the kit over the pew to prevent spilling on the carpet. After the service, please dispose of your own kit either in a waste receptacle at church or at home.

UPCOMING COMMEMORATIONS

John was a priest in Antioch and an outstanding preacher.

His eloquence earned him the nickname "Chrysostom" ("golden mouth").

Appointed bishop of Constantinople, seat of the empire, he criticized corruption in the court.

As a result, he was exiled by the empress.

Holy Cross Day Tuesday, September 14, 2021

Helena, mother of Constantine, made a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and found what she believed to be the actual site of Jesus' crucifixion.

Her son built two churches there, and the dedication of one of them gave rise to this celebration of our Lord's victory on the cross.

Cyprian, Bishop of Carthage, martyr, died around 258 Thursday, September 16, 2021

Cyprian served as a bishop during a time of great persecution of Christians.

He insisted on receiving back those who had left the faith under duress.

He also provided medical care during a severe epidemic.

Hildegard, Abbess of Bingen, died 1179 Friday, September 17, 2021

A mystic who was widely influential within the church,

Hildegard advised and reproved kings and popes, wrote poems and hymns, & produced treatises in medicine, theology, & natural history. She was also a musician & artist.

Dag Hammarskjöld, renewer of society, died 1961 Saturday, September 18, 2021

A Swedish diplomat, Hammarskjöld served as the 2nd Secretary General of the United Nations until his death in a plane crash while trying to negotiate peace in present-day Zambia.

His journal, published as Markings, revealed the depth of his Christian faith.

GATHERING READINGS

As you prepare for worship, we encourage you to read and reflect on these lessons.

Isaiah 50:4-9a

GOD has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word.
Morning by morning he wakens — wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught.

GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious; I did not turn backward.

I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard;

I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

GOD helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced;

therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame;

he who vindicates me is near.

Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together.

Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me.

It is GOD who helps me. Who will declare me guilty?

Psalm 116:1-9

I love Yahweh, who has heard my voice, and listened to my supplication, for Yahweh has given ear to me whenever I called.

The cords of death entangled me; the anguish of the grave came upon me; I came to grief & sorrow.

Then I called upon the name of Yahweh: “O Yahweh, I pray you, save my life.”

Gracious is the LORD and righteous; our God is full of compassion.

The Yahweh watches over the innocent; I was brought low, and God saved me.

Turn again to your rest, O my soul, for Yahweh has dealt well with you.

For you have rescued my life from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling;

I will walk in the presence of Yahweh in the land of the living.

James 3:1-12

Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is perfect, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle. If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies. Or look at ships: though they are so large that it takes strong winds to drive them, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits.

How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire! And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell. For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species, but no one can tame the tongue — a restless evil, full of deadly poison. With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse those who are made in the likeness of God. From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so. Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water? Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

GATHERING SONG

Trust In You

Verse 1 Letting go of every single dream I lay each one down at Your feet
Every moment of my wondering Never changes what You see

Verse 2 I've tried to win this war I confess My hands are weary I need Your rest Mighty warrior King of the fight No matter what I face You're by my side

Chorus When You don't move the mountains I'm needing You to move
When You don't part the waters I wish I could walk through
When You don't give the answers As I cry out to You
I will trust I will trust I will trust in You

Verse 3 Truth is You know what tomorrow brings There's not a day ahead You have not seen
So in all things be my life and breath I want what You want Lord and nothing less

Bridge You are my strength and comfort You are my steady hand
You are my firm foundation The Rock on which I stand
Your ways are always higher Your plans are always good There's not a place where I'll go You've not already stood

WELCOME

Welcome in the name of the God whose foolishness is wiser than our wisdom and whose weakness is greater than our strength!

Thank you for joining us today! Thank you, those of you who are here in person with us!
And thank you, those of you out there in cyber space, wherever – and whenever! – you are!

For those of you who don't know me,
I'm Pastor Marjo Anderson of Salem Lutheran Church in Bridgeport, CT.
To find out more about our ministry or to contact us, you can go to our website SalemBridgeport.org, to our Facebook page, SalemBridgeport, and to our YouTube channel, Salem Lutheran Church, Bridgeport CT.

Links to our donate page and worship bulletin – which has both the order of worship and announcements – as well as other resources are included on our website at SalemBridgeport.org/Live.

Every Wednesday we gather for prayer on zoom at 12:00 noon.
And on Wednesday evenings we gather on zoom from 6:30-7:15 for Bible study.
Currently our Bible Study is focused on the Purpose and Principles of Worship, so if you'd like to help plan worship or simply would like to get more out of worship, please join us.
Following Bible Study at 7:15 we will have a brief service of Holy Communion together.
The links for both Prayer and Bible Study are on the Calendar on our website at Salembridgeport.org under the Resources Tab.

Now as we begin our worship, will you pray with me?

God, we come together today to give you thanks and praise!
You have called us, not simply to believe that you exist, but to be in relationship with you.
You desire not only our love, but our trust – trust not just in the overall journey of our lives, but in each and every step that we take.
You have given us intelligence and reason, but the devil is always tempting us to trust in ourselves rather than you.
Help us to learn to discern between your voice and that of the tempter.
Give us the courage to let go of our idols, the things we hold most dear, so we can cling to you and to you alone.
Open our minds, cleanse our hearts, and renew our spirits so that we leave this worship changed from when we arrived.
We pray this in the name of Jesus and by the power of the Spirit. Amen

OPENING HYMN When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

(as found in the ELCA worship books Evangelical Lutheran Worship # 803 and This Far by Faith # 79)

When we worship indoors please meditate on the text or sing it silently in your head, or if you would like to sing softly, PLEASE wear a mask.

While you may feel safe singing, not everyone feels safe having you sing.

They may not tell you that – they may just stop coming to worship.

When we are outdoors we can sing (softly, please, unless you are masked!)

*As Christians we are to put our love for God and others before our own desires,
So please, exercise patience, understanding, and love for your neighbor. Thank you.*

When I survey the wondrous cross on which the prince of glory died, my richest gain I count but loss and pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast save in the death of Christ, my God;
all the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.

See, from his head, his hands, his feet, sorrow and love flow mingled down,
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine, that were a present far too small;
love so amazing, so divine,
demands my soul, my life, my all.

Word

Judges 7.2-8

*Jehovah tells Gideon to get an army, so Gideon gathers together 32,000 fighting men.
But there is an army of 135,000 men against Israel.*

^{7:2}Jehovah now said to Gideon: "There are too many people with you for me to give Mid'i-an into their hand. Otherwise, Israel might brag about itself against me and say, 'My own hand saved me.'
³Now, please, announce in the presence of the people: 'Whoever is afraid and trembling, let him return home.'" So Gideon put them to the test. With that, 22,000 of the people returned home, and 10,000 remained. ⁴Still Jehovah said to Gideon: "There are yet too many people. Have them go down to the water so that I may test them for you there. When I say to you, 'This one will go with you,' he will go with you, but when I say to you, 'This one will not go along with you,' he will not go along."
⁵So he took the people down to the water. Then Jehovah said to Gideon: "Separate everyone who laps up the water with his tongue just as a dog laps, from those who bend down on their knees to drink."
⁶The number of those lapping up the water, putting their hand to their mouth, was 300 men. The rest of the people bent down on their knees to drink. ⁷Jehovah now said to Gideon: "I will save you with the 300 men who lapped the water, and I will give Mid'i-an into your hand. But let all the other people go back home."
⁸So after they took the provisions and the horns from the people, he sent all the other men of Israel back home, and he kept only the 300 men.

The time comes for the fight. Gideon puts his 300 men in three groups.

He gives to each man a horn, and a jar with a torch inside it.

When it is about midnight, they all gather around the camp of enemy soldiers.

Then, at the same time, they all blow their horns and break their jars, and shout:

'Jehovah's sword and Gideon's!'

When the enemy soldiers wake up, they are confused and afraid.

They all begin to run, and the Israelites win the battle.

I Corinthians 1.18-31

¹⁸For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart."

²⁰Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? ²¹For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. ²²For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, ²³but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, ²⁴but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. ²⁵For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

²⁶Consider your own call, brothers and sisters: not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. ²⁷But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; ²⁸God chose what is low and despised in the world, things that are not, to reduce to nothing things that are, ²⁹so that no one might boast in the presence of God. ³⁰He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption, ³¹in order that, as it is written, "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."

Mark 8:27-38

Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that I am?” And they answered him, “John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.” He asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered him, “You are the Messiah.” And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him.

Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.”

He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

OFFERTORY SONG Have Thine Own Way, Lord

(as found in the ELCA worship book, This Far by Faith # 152)

1 Have thine own way, Lord, have thine own way.

Thou art the potter, I am the clay.

Mold me and make me after thy will,

while I am waiting, yielded and still.

2 Have thine own way, Lord, have thine own way.

Search me and try me, Master, today.

Purer than snow, Lord, wash me just now,

as in thy presence humbly I bow.

3 Have thine own way, Lord, have thine own way.

Wounded and weary, help me, I pray.

Power, all power surely is thine.

Touch me and heal me, Savior divine.

4 Have thine own way, Lord, have thine own way.

Hold o'er my being absolute sway.

Fill with thy Spirit till all shall see

Christ only, always, living in me.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

You may stand & make the sign of the cross if you so desire.

In the name of the Father, and of the ✠ Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

God of all mercy and consolation, come to the help of your people, turning us from our sin to live for you alone.
Give us the power of your Holy Spirit that we may confess our sin, receive your forgiveness, and grow into the fullness of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another. Silence is kept for reflection.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves.
We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us.
Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will & walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name. Amen

God, who is rich in mercy, loved us even when we were dead in sin, and made us alive together with Christ. By grace you have been saved.

In the name of ✠ Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven.

Almighty God strengthen you with power through the Holy Spirit, that Christ may live in your hearts through faith. Amen

COMMUNION

And also with you!

Open your hearts!

We open them to God and one another!

Come, Lord Jesus, be our guest and let these gifts to us be blessed.

Blessed be God, who is our Bread; may all the world be clothed and fed. Amen

The body of Christ given for you.

that You would take my place, that You would bear my cross!
You laid down Your life that I would be set free!
Oh Jesus I sing for all that You've done for me!

Who brings our chaos back into order? Who makes the orphan a son and daughter?
The King of Glory the King of Glory!

Who rules the nations with truth and justice, shines like the sun in all of its brilliance?
The King of Glory the King above all kings! (Refrain)

Worthy is the Lamb who was slain! Worthy is the King who conquered the grave!
Worthy is the Lamb who was slain! Worthy is the King who conquered the grave!
Worthy is the Lamb who was slain! Worthy is the King who conquered the grave!
Worthy is the Lamb who was slain! Worthy! Worthy! Worthy! (Refrain)

Announcements

Sunday Worship Services – We are now doing in-person worship with live-streaming to Facebook. Weather permitting, we will be worshipping outdoors as much as possible, so please bring a lawn chair if you want, or you are welcome to sit at the picnic tables.

Wednesday at 12:00 noon we meet on zoom for prayer. You can pray out loud if you want, or you can simply ask others to pray for you or for the concerns on your mind or heart.

The link is also on the calendar on our website at Salembridgeport.org under the Resources Tab.

Wednesday evenings we gather on zoom from 6:30-7:15 for Bible study. Currently our Bible Study is focused on the Purpose and Principles of Worship, so if you'd like to help plan worship or simply would like to get more out of worship, please join us. Following Bible Study at 7:15 we will have a brief service of Holy Communion together.

The link is also on the calendar on our website at Salembridgeport.org under the Resources Tab.

Thank you to Calumet's Walk the Walk Team "God at the Center" – comprised of Eileen and Ray Anderson, Susan and Gustav the Dog Murphy, Jean and Tom Larson, Jeanette Harris, Elaine and Keith Weston, and Pastor Marjo – which made up 5/10^{ths} of 1% of Calumet's walkers and walked 2,254 miles or about 8/10^{ths} of 1% of the 255,789 miles walked in July and August! That means we did more than our share per person (or dog)! And it means Calumet exceeded its 200,000 mile goal by over 25%. Thanks be to God! Hallelujah!
